AFC LEAGUE AND CLUB MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP: Stadium Security

AUSTRALIAN FOOTBALL COLLEGE

Australian Football College (AFC) is a specialised Registered Training Organisation (RTO) delivering nationally recognised football specific sporting qualifications at Certificate and Diploma levels.

AFC can customise skill sets of varying durations to suit your organisation needs, focusing on achievable outcomes for your league or club.

All AFC qualifications and programs can be delivered within Australia and internationally.

The Asian Football Confederation Club licensing regulations were introduced in 2015 under the Asian Football Confederation League Development Program. The new regulations require clubs and leagues to assign a dedicated sports officer in various fields.

AFC professional development workshops enable participants to recognise and seize important growth opportunities within the football arena and empower them to improve the level of soccer league and club managements.

WORKSHOP FACILITATOR: MR ZOHAIR AMMAR

Mr Zohair Ammar is a globally well respected senior sport executive with an extensive background in administration, marketing, fundraising, communications, strategic planning, sports security, sports coaching, and event management.

Mr Ammar's notable achievements include being a current Instructor and Program Manager of the FIFA/CIES Executive Program in Sports Management, a FIFA regional instructor, former Senior Manager and Consultant for the Vodafone Football Sponsorship Program in Egypt, and he is a guest speaker at the International Centre for Sports Studies (CIES), Switzerland.

Mr Ammar is a former Board Member of the Egyptian Football Association (EFA) and is passionate about sharing his knowledge and experience!

Mr Ammar has delivered many courses for the National Football Federation in Africa and Asia addressing club licensing, compliance and professional development.

TURN YOUR PASSION FOR SOCCER INTO A CAREER YOU LOVE

WORKSHOP INFORMATION

If you're passionate about soccer, you and all relevant stakeholders in your club / league should attend this Stadium and Security workshop that is part of the League and Club Management Workshop series.

The Asian Football Confederation club licensing regulations were introduced in 2015 under the Asian Football Confederation League Development Programme. The regulations require clubs and leagues to assign dedicated security officers to the stadium. This workshop offers security officers the opportunity to learn about their role and responsibilities in their clubs and their league competitions.

It highlights issues related to decision-making in security matters and the relevant AFC and FIFA regulations, specifically addressing security situations in club, league and national team matches and their risk categories and risk management.
